ABOUT PAULETTE

Why book Paulette for your event?

Paulette Harper is a life and book writing coach, inspirational speaker and author. She has been empowering women through personal and spiritual development that allows them to gain clarity, find their purpose and walk in their truth.

SPEAKER

Since she began speaking, Paulette has spoken to thousands in workshops, seminars, and conferences. Her ability to share and connect with her audience comes from her own life's journey and experiences. Paulette's desire is to empower, influence and cultivate women to move forward while dealing with issues that hinder women from fulfilling their God given purpose.

Her signature talks include: The Blessings of Rejection, Removing the Masks and Life After Divorce have empowered women from all walks of life.

AUTHOR

Paulette has authored eleven books including two award winners. She writes in three genres: Christian inspirational fiction, christian non fiction and children's books. She now coaches aspiring authors to position themselves in the publishing industry as authors.
